Specialized Business Group—Gaming

1707 Cole Blvd., Suite 350
Lakewood, CO 80401

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a licensed gaming employee. Before you submit your application, I want to make you aware of a few facts.

The casino and sports betting industries in Colorado are among of the most scrutinized businesses in the state, because Colorado citizens want the industry and everyone involved in it free from even the hint of any corruption or deceit. That's why we take our regulation of the industry very seriously, including the issuance of licenses.

During the licensing process, we will conduct a thorough check of your background. If you pass our qualifications, you will be issued a gaming license that will allow you to work in a casino. You should know that a gaming license is a privilege, not a right. And one thing you must do to obtain this privilege is be completely honest on your license application.

In particular, we ask you on page 3 of the application: "...since you turned age 18, have you ever been arrested, served with a criminal summons, charged with, or convicted of ANY crime or offense in any manner?" The application goes on to tell you to explain ALL such arrests or charges no matter the final outcome.

Did you list ALL arrests and charges since age 18? Are you clear about what you need to disclose? If not, then ask someone at the front desk to assist you and answer any questions you might have. Here are some of the excuses we have heard from people who have failed to disclose arrests to us:

- My attorney told me I didn't have to disclose.
- I didn't think I was arrested, because I only got a ticket.
- I didn't think the arrest had anything to do with gaming.
- I didn't think that was still on my record.

But there is no excuse not to disclose an arrest. You have been informed throughout the application to disclose ALL arrests. And you have just been informed again: You will not necessarily be denied a license if you have ever been arrested, but you will be denied if you fail to disclose any arrest.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Hartman
Director
Colorado Division of Gaming

I have read and understand this letter.

Colorado Division of Gaming STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

I understand the license being issued today is still subject to denial pending the final results of the Division of Gaming investigation of my background. This temporary license will become permanent upon the final results of the background investigation unless I receive notification otherwise. Upon receipt of a Notice of Denial, I agree to immediately surrender my identification badge to the Division of Gaming. I understand such a denial will be effective immediately. I understand I may appeal the denial of my application, and until a determination is made of that appeal, I cannot possess a gaming license. I understand I would have no right to work in any capacity that requires a gaming license unless the denial of my gaming license is reversed by an order of the Colorado Limited Gaming Control Commission.

I understand I am responsible for knowing and complying with state laws and regulations governing limited gaming. I understand I may obtain or view these documents at any of the Division of Gaming offices. I understand I am being made aware of the following regulations and agree to comply with them:

- I am required to notify the Lakewood office of the Division of Gaming online or in writing of any arrest, criminal charge, or conviction pending against me within 10 days of such arrest, charge or conviction. This notification requirement shall not apply to non-felony traffic violations unless they result in suspension or revocation of a driver's license, are based on allegations of driving under the influence or impairment of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or result in me being taken into custody. [Regulation 30-405(4)] In addition, infractions which must be reported include reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident (hit and run), driving under denial, suspension, or revocation.
- I may pay a $5 fee to obtain a duplicate license. (Regulation 30-323) Cash is not accepted. Checks, credit cards, and money orders only.
- I am required to renew my gaming license 30 days before the expiration of the license I am being issued. [Regulation 30-302(2)] (Note: You should receive a renewal application in the mail 60-90 days prior to your expiration date, but you are still ultimately responsible to obtain a renewal application if you do not receive one in the mail and to file 30 days before expiration.)
- If I allow my Gaming license to expire for even one day and then try to reapply, I must submit an original license application along with the original application fee. [Regulation 30-303]

I understand during the period in which I hold a gaming license, I must:

- File state and federal income tax returns;
- Remain current on all state and federal tax and other governmental obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans;
- Remain current on all government-insured student loan obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans;
- Remain current on all child support obligations, including any present and/or future payment plans.

I understand the Division of Gaming will perform a background check one year from the month in which my license is being issued to check whether I have filed necessary tax returns and remained current on the government obligations listed above. I understand if the Division of Gaming contacts me regarding any issues associated with this annual check, I will provide any information the Division of Gaming requests to show my continued suitability to hold a gaming license.

I understand I am responsible to notify the Division of Gaming office in writing when I have a change in name, residence address, mailing address or phone number, since all correspondence is sent to my last known address. Failure to notify the Division could result in my not receiving approval letters, renewal applications, legal notices, and other correspondence.

I have read all of the above information and understand my responsibilities as a gaming licensee. I further understand that failure to comply with any law, regulation, or the provisions of this Statement may be grounds for disciplinary action, including but not limited to the suspension or revocation of my gaming license and a monetary penalty after an administrative hearing.

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing.¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.²
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> and <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³

DERECHOS DE PRIVACIDAD DE SOLICITANTES - JUSTICIA, NO CRIMINAL

Como solicitante sujeto a una indagación nacional de antecedentes criminales basado en huellas dactilares, para un propósito no criminal (tal como una solicitud para empleo o una licencia, un propósito de inmigración o naturalización, autorización de seguridad, o adopción), usted tiene ciertos derechos que se entablan a continuación. Toda notificación se le debe proveer por escrito.¹ Estas obligaciones son de acuerdo al Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, y Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, entre otras autorizaciones.

- Se le debe proveer una Declaración de la Ley de Privacidad del FBI (con fecha de 2013 o más reciente) por escrito cuando presente sus huellas digitales e información personal relacionada. La Declaración de la Ley de Privacidad debe explicar la autorización para tomar sus huellas digitales e información relacionada y si se investigarán, compartirán, o retendrán sus huellas digitales e información relacionada.²
- Se le debe notificar por escrito el proceso para obtener un cambio, corrección, o actualización de su historial criminal del FBI según delineado en el 28 CFR 16.34.
- Se le tiene que proveer una oportunidad de completar o disputar la exactitud de la información contenida en su historial criminal del FBI (si tiene dicho historial).
- Si tiene un historial criminal, se le debe dar un tiempo razonable para corregir o completar el historial (o para rechazar hacerlo) antes de que los funcionarios le nieguen el empleo, licencia, u otro beneficio basado en la información contenida en su historial criminal del FBI.
- Si lo permite la política de la agencia, el funcionario le podría otorgar una copia de su historial criminal del FBI para repasarlo y posiblemente cuestionarlo. Si la política de la agencia no permite que se le provea una copia del historial, usted puede obtener una copia del historial presentando sus huellas digitales y una tarifa al FBI. Puede obtener información referente a este proceso en <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> y <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- Si decide cuestionar la veracidad o totalidad de su historial criminal del FBI, deberá presentar sus preguntas a la agencia que contribuyó la información cuestionada al FBI. Alternativamente, puede enviar sus preguntas directamente al FBI presentando un petición por medio de <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. El FBI luego enviará su petición a la agencia que contribuyó la información cuestionada, y solicitará que la agencia verifique o corrija la información cuestionada. Al recibir un comunicado oficial de esa agencia, el FBI hará cualquier cambio/corrección necesaria a su historial de acuerdo con la información proveída por la agencia. (Vea 28 CFR 16.30 al 16.34.)
- Usted tiene el derecho de esperar que los funcionarios que reciban los resultados de la investigación de su historial criminal lo usarán para los propósitos autorizados y que no los retendrán o diseminarán en violación a los estatutos, normas u órdenes ejecutivos federales, o reglas, procedimientos o normas establecidas por el National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³
